Paid Research Survey: Voice Perception in Job Interviews

What do applicants’ voices say about them?

We are interested in how hiring managers perceive the voices of job applicants and what traits can be conveyed in the voice. Participants will listen to recordings and give their impressions of “applicants” for various jobs.

You are eligible if you:
- are over age 18
- interview or hire people as part of your job
- are a native speaker of American English since preschool
- have no known speech, hearing, or cognitive disorders
- complete the survey using headphones or earbuds

How long it takes: ~ 30 minutes
Compensation: $10 Amazon card

Complete the survey online: https://is.gd/skO5MF

Questions? Contact Dr. Valerie Freeman or her lab assistants at Oklahoma State University: sophon@cowboymail.okstate.edu / 405-744-2996